Welcome to NTNU Enrollment System

System Service

★The course selection system has now switched to the 2026 fall semester. If you wish to view your course selection results for the 2026 summer session, please log in to the Academic Affairs System, go to "Information about Course Enrollment" → "My Courses Schedule", then change the semester to 114 summer session to view your course list.

System Access for Fall 2026 (115-1):

The Course Enrollment System is available daily from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight during all enrollment periods.

Stage 1: Aug 4-7, 2026 (registration-based). Results will be announced at 5:00 p.m. on Aug 14.

Stage 2: Aug 17-19, 2026 (registration-based). Results will be announced at 5:00 p.m. on Aug 26.

New Student Enrollment: Aug 28-31, 2026 (registration-based). Results will be announced at 5:00 p.m. on Sep 4.

Add/Drop Period: Sep 7-20, 2026 (real-time add/drop). [Sep 21: Only the add function will remain available.]

★To maintain system performance and ensure fairness in course selection, students found using plug-in programs or automated software to interfere with the system will have their course selection privileges suspended immediately.

★Students without record of school attendance (e.g., newly admitted students, or those who defer enrollment or take a leave of absence immediately after admission) should participate in course selection during the "New Student Enrollment" period. Transfer students may log in and enroll during all stages once their accounts are activated.

★Information on NTU System Intercollegiate Courses for Fall 2026 will be announced after Stage 1 results are released, and enrollment will open during Stage 2. Students are advised to check announcements regularly.

COURSE SELECTION RULES

REMINDER

- Courses are assigned based on the "course distribution system".
<https://www.aa.ntnu.edu.tw/en/FAQ/Curriculum02/Class01>
- The first stage of course selection is primarily for choosing courses within your department; therefore, you will only be assigned one general education course.
- The second stage of course selection allows you to choose other general education courses or courses that you missed in the first stage and courses from other universities (NTU&NTUST).
- Physical education classes will reserve a certain number of spots for first-year students. Year4 students can take two physical education classes per semester, but generally, they can only take one per semester.

FOR FRESHMEN

- Freshmen have two course selection phase in their first semester, which is stage 1 and add/remove options. Starting from the second semester, the course selection is divided into three stages: stage 1, stage 2 and add/remove options
- Courses selected at this stage are not guaranteed to be selected by the system; you need to check the system again a week after the selection deadline to check the course enrollment result.
- If you can't select your desired courses in the course enrollment period, you can try to add the courses during add-drop period if they have quotas, or ask the professor for an authorization code during the first week of the semester in person.

AUTHORIZATION CODE

- Authorization codes are generally limited and are issued based on the professors; simply going to the class doesn't mean you'll get one.
- If you are admitted to the course using an authorization code, you cannot withdraw from that course during the add-drop period.
- Course selection results will be available approximately one week after the course selection deadline.
